Summary

Yuvsechko Y. Religion and Church in Ukraine as Political Subjects: Transformations during the Revolution. The article is devoted to the specifics of the functioning of religion and the Church in Ukraine as political subjects, as well as their role in the Revolution period 2013-2014. It analyzes the activity of churches and religious organizations of Ukraine in the context of interaction with the political sphere of society, and their contribution to the formation of civil society in Ukraine. The conclusion is that the key factor that determines the role of churches and religious organizations at the present stage of forming the Ukrainian nation is not only their work on consolidation of the nation on the basis of common beliefs, but also the ability to keep up with civic and moral transformation in society. Keywords: Civil society, church, revolution, social institution, political power.
