

SUMMARY

Mykola LYTUVYN

5–16

The Historian of the Ukrainian Liberation Struggles of the 1st Half of the 20th Century: Aleksander Kolanczuk Turns 80

The article sums up life and academic achievements of the renown Polish historians of Ukrainian origin Aleksander Kolanczuk (Peremyszl), a researcher of the Ukrainian political and military migration from Ukrainian People's Republic and a leader of the heritage conservation efforts on the territory of the contemporary Poland.

Keywords: Aleksander Kolanczuk, Poland, Ukraine, military and political history

Viktoriya LYUBASHCHENKO

17–25

Polish king Wladyslaw II Jagiello and Kievan metropolitan Cyprian: attempt to Church Union in the late of the XIV century

The author interprets the geopolitical processes in Eastern Europe in the second half of the XIV century, which led the church particular trends in the Polish-Lithuanian State. Analyzes the activities of Kievan metropolitan Cyprian, aimed at preserving the unity of the Kievan Church, which means to cancel independence of the Galician Metropolis. It is in the context of these processes and trends to be seen attempting to hold the uniate church synod, initiated by Polish king Wladyslaw II Jagiello and Kievan metropolitan Cyprian in the late of the XIV century.

Keywords: Galician Metropolis, Wladyslaw II Jagiello, Cyprian, Church Union.

Natalia MYSAK

26–37

Galician advocates in the end of the XIX th – beginning of the XX th century: nationality and professional activities

The article analyzes the relationship between professional activity and nationality Galician advocates in the end of the XIX th – beginning of the XX th century. Attention is accented on the characteristics of various forms of cooperation between human rights activists of different nationalities, mainly Ukrainian and Polish, in the land.

Keywords: advocates, law office, Galicia, professional activities, nationality.

Olga NIKOLAYENKO

38–43

Polish women's movement in the Ukrainian provinces of the Russian Empire in the early 20th century

In the article the analysis of emergence and dissemination of the Polish women's mutual help movement in the Ukrainian provinces of the Russian Empire in the early 20th century. On the basis of archival documents and analyses the socio-political situation in the Empire identified features of program objectives and activities of the organizations, their role in the history of the Polish women's movement.

Keywords: Polish population, gender history, the Ukrainian provinces of the Russian Empire, the women's movement, the mutual help movement.

Taras HORBACHEVSKYY

44–56

Roman-catholic community of Lviv during the interwar period (1921–1939)

The article shows the structure of Roman-Catholic community of Lviv and their participation in religious and social life of the city, and relations with Greek-Catholic Church.

Keywords: Roman-Catholic Church, Lviv, concordat, house of parish, Catholic League, Catholic Action, theological courses, beneficent activity.

Oleksandr ZAYTSEV

57–70

The OUN's Attitudes to the Attempts of Ukrainian-Polish Agreement, 1929–1934

The article traces the attitude of the OUN to the attempts of various Ukrainian political forces to reach an agreement with Poland, discusses disagreements and debates on this issue in the Organisation. For joint condemnation of 'uhodovstvo' (cap-in-hand policy), there were two approaches in the OUN to the attempts of the Ukrainian-Polish agreement – militant and moderate. The militant approach gradually overbalanced, reaching a climax in terrorist acts in 1934.

Keywords: Organisation of Ukrainian Nationalists, Ukrainian People's Republic State Centre in exile, Ukrainian National Democratic Alliance, Ukrainian-Polish relations, integral nationalism.

Andrii BOLIANOVSKYY

71–91

Ukrainians, Russians and Poles in Germany's Armed Forces, 1939–1945: comparative analysis

The article raises a question of the service of Russians, Ukrainians and Poles, in Germany's Armed Forces during World War II. The work is an attempt of general comparison of Nazi policy in the recruitment of these nationalities within the Wehrmacht. This work breaks new ground in the investigation of military utilization of Eastern European Slavs by the Third Reich.

Keywords: the Third Reich, German-Soviet War, Germany's Armed Forces.

Tetyana PRON'

92–102

Interstate Displacement of the Ethnic Population of the Ukrainian-Polish Borderland in Volhynia Region (1944-1946)

The article deals with the example of the Volyn region, a inter-state movement of the ethnic population of the Ukrainian-Polish borderland conducted in 1944–1946 years by the government of the USSR and PKNO, in accordance with the agreement of the leaders of the anti-Hitler coalition, the international recognition of the new boundary line of the USSR and Poland.

Keywords: population movements, evacuation, relocation, deportation, the Ukrainian-Polish border, Volyn region.

Oksana KALISHCHUK

103–110

Opposition on Ukrainian-Polish border line in years of the Second World War

In political science measuring is Reflected influence of Ukrainian-Polish opposition in the years of Second world war on intergovernmental relations on the modern stage. It is indicated on the differences of interpretation of these events different political environments and the place of the “Volhynia events” is rotined in the policy of “historical memory”. Appeal attention on official position both the states in the question of celebration in honour of victims of Ukrainian-Polish opposition.

Keywords: Ukrainian-Polish opposition, modern policy, public consciousness.

Yaroslav KONDRACH

111–128

Holm: Ethnocultural specificity of the modern era, the influence of deportations 40-ies of XX century

Analysis of ethno-cultural specificity of the Ukrainian population Holm during the modern era, the influence of deportation processes 1944–1947 biennium Rekonststruyovano Ethno-Social Portrait resettled holmschakiv.

Keywords: Holm, deportation, ukrainian, polish.

Khrystyna KHARCHUK

129–133

Funeral family chapel Lychakiv cemetery

This article addresses the question of funeral family chapel in Lychakiv nekropol in Lviv. It's historical, memorial and cultural legacy Ukraine and Polisch.

Keywords: family funeral chapel, Lychakiv cemetery, historical memorial monument.

Mykola LYTUVYN

134–140

The problem of Ukrainian-Polish relations of the modern epoch

The article actualizes issues and achievements of the modern Ukrainian and Polish historiography in the study of Ukrainian-Polish relations in the end of the XIXth – early XXth cent. Particular attention is paid to the historical science interpretation of military and political confrontation in 1917–1921 and 1939–1951.

Keywords: Ukraine, Poland, historiography, modern epoch.

Oksana RUDA, Oleh PIKH

141–152

Editorial work of Myron Korduba on the pages of “Kwartalnik Historyczny” (“Historical Quarterly”)

The article analyses Myron Korduba’s editorial activities and critical reviews in the journal “Historical Quarterly” (“Kwartalnik Historyczny”). Ukrainian scientist worked with this journal in 1895–1896 and in 1938, during this period in the ‘Historical Quarterly’ “were published approximately 26 reviews by M. Korduba. His publications were related to the researches concerning ancient, medieval and modern history done by German, French, Russian and Italian authors. Due to the critical reviews by M. Korduba reader was able to learn about the news of European academic life, particularly about historiography, and the young scientist won wide recognition in Ukraine and abroad.

Keywords: Myron Korduba, historiography, review, research and critical reviews.

Alla SEREDIAK

153–157

Myron Korduba and the Ukrainian Community in Moscow (to the history of the visit in 1907).

The young scientist Myron Korduba studied historical archives in Moscow in autumn 1907. His civic and cultural activities during this period positively influenced on the unity of Ukrainian student community in Moscow. Lviv scientist helped to identify community goals and methods of obtaining civil and national rights.

Keywords: Myron Korduba, Ukrainian community, student organization, national identity.

Oleh PIKH, Maryna CHEBAN

158–178

Myron Korduba and Mykola Andrusyak: the history of relations

The article analyzes relationships of the Ukrainian historians M.Korduba and M.Andrusyak, in particular it highlights their personal and professional contacts. Also, the views of scientists on the problems of the Ukrainian science development, activities of Shevchenko Scientific Society and the national book publishing, etc. are given. The correspondence of two scientists is characterized. Correspondence of M. Korduba and M. Andrusiak is given in the appendix to the article.

Keywords: M. Korduba, M. Andrusiak, Bibliographic Commission of Shevchenko Scientific Society, editorial activities, Ukrainian book publishing.

Iaroslav SERKIZ

179–183

Myron Korduba in the Assessments of His Contemporaries

The article scrutinizes the assessments of the activities and research of the Ukrainian historian Myron Korduba by his contemporaries M. Hrushevs'kyi, I. Franko, S. Tomashivs'kyi, D. Doroshenko and others. It characterizes Korduba's academic activities in the educational institutions of Chernivtsi, Warsaw and Kholm.

Keywords: M. Korduba, M. Hrushevs'kyi, S. Tomashiws'kyi, fiction, Ukrainian historiography, reviews, ethnographic border of Ukraine, educational activities.

Oleh PIKH

184–191

Myron Korduba's scientific and educational activities in Warsaw (1928–1940)

The article highlights Warsaw period of the famous Ukrainian scientist M.Korduba. His work at the Warsaw University and participation in the bilateral Ukrainian-Polish projects such as “Komisja ds. Badań Problemów Polsko-Ukraińskich” of the Ukrainian Scientific Institute in Warsaw and in the journal “Biuletyn Polsko-Ukraiński” are discussed. The basic directions of M.Korduba's scientific research at that time are examined.

Keywords: M. Korduba, Warsaw University, Federation of Historical Societies of Eastern Europe, Ukrainian Scientific Institute in Warsaw, toponymy, critical-bibliographical research.

Borys BILYNS'KYI

192–198

Myron Korduba in the Context of His Times

The article analyzes the main stages of social, political, research and educational activities of the distinguished Ukrainian historian M. Korduba. Being based on the personal memories of his grandson B. Bilins'kyi, it characterizes the personality of the scientist and highlights his attitudes and views on the various historical events.

Keywords: M. Korduba, national revival in Bukovyna, Ukrainian Underground University in L'viv, totalitarian regime, statehood-oriented outlook.

Nadiya OSTASH

199–208

An ordinary person in the history (s. Berezno on Kholm)

Material and spiritual life, everyday life, educational, religious and common traditions of an ordinary person from the village of Berezno in Kholmshchyna are enlightened in the article.

Keywords: Kholmshchyna, deportation, migrant, ethnic, Ukrainian.

Romana BAHRIJ

209–219

Ukrainian Pharmacist and Benefactor Volodymyr Kindrachuk

York University (Toronto, Canada) Professor Romana Bahrij's memoir tells about her Grandfather's Volodymyr Kindrachuk professional and public activities. He organized and sponsored the construction of the memorial to the Ukrainian People's Army in Lancut (nowadays on the territory of Poland).

Keywords: Volodymyr Kindrachuk, benefactor, military memorial