

Vitaliy Matveev. The topicality and possible ways of intensifying the of educational process at the higher school

In the article analyzes the state of preparation of students of Ukrainian universities after the introduction of the Bologna system. Author of the article offers his vision of improving the quality of education through the transition from extensive to intensive method of the knowledge. Author considers that the achievement of this is possible only on the basis of the introduction of courses of development of human possibilities as in the philosophical and theoretical and practical levels. In particular, he proposes to enter the elements of yoga practice into the learning process to improve the physical, moral, intellectual and spiritual level of students.
