Ecumenical position of UGCC: stage of development and current trends

The evolution of the ecumenical position of the UGCC during the twentieth and the beginning of twenty-first century has been analyzed. An ecumenical activity of the denomination is divided into four periods, which corresponds to four of the Greek-Catholic leaders. Documents related to the ecumenical movement of leaders of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church have been analyzed. An ecumenical stance of the denomination is highlighted in the article as a separate religious phenomenon. The position of the Greek-Catholics regarding union of churches at national and international levels have been considered. Most attention is paid to the position of the Greek Catholics regarding ecumenical activities of the Orthodox Church. It has been revealed that the ecumenical activities of UGCC evolved into independent and fully formed concept of ecumenism, which is based on theoretical and practical achievements of the Primates of the Church, as well as general Catholic positions regarding ecumenism.

Keywords: Ecumenical movement, Primates of the UGCC, history of UGCC, Byzantine rite, Churches of Volodymyr's baptism.
