Influence of Legal Education on the functioning of the state and state apparatus

This article analyzes the implications of the legal education and its components on the functioning of the state and the state apparatus. Functions of the state, the system of principles are represented; the mechanism and the content of the individual components of the influence of legal education to the functioning of state and the state apparatus are revealed. The function of state occurs along with its formation, but not yet established an effective mechanism for its implementation; the function is the main focus of government activities. State functions can be defined as the main activities of the State in which it is expressed and concretized universal essence and social purpose. Societal function of the state stabilizes relationships and connections in the community, its integrity based on common economic, cultural, national and other interests. It determines the role of the state as an instrument of overcoming the contradictions and stabilizing social relations.
