Methodology for the Analysis of Consciousness in the Work of M.Mamardashvili

Analysis methodology of the consciousness in the works of M.Mamardashvili is undoubtedly important in axiological confusion of modern consciousness, loss of rational culture and conceptual skills, categorical thinking, because it allows to generalize a variety of approaches to the problem of the organization of the thinking process of theoretical knowledge. There are two forms of mental organization in M. Mamardashvili's works: through phenomenological reduction and through methodological system of rules. These forms are connected with Cartesian program of scientific research that was creatively overthought by M.Mamardashvili.

Keywords: dialectics, phenomenology, methodology, consciousness, thinking, reduction, normative principles, reflection.
