- 3) Cases from practice
- 4) Experimental anesthesiology
- 5) Reviews
- 6) Materials of congresses
- 7) Problems of medical education, training and retraining
- 8) Anniversaries

5. An article should be submitted to editorial in two copies, signed by all the authors. By their signatures the authors guarantee that the article meets all the requirements of the manual of the article style for “Clinical anesthesiology and intensive care” journal, experimental and clinical researches have been executed according to the international ethical norms of scientific researches, and also they give the publisher a right for publication of the article in the Journal, placing it and its materials on the Journal’s site and in other sources. Authors also submit a Declaration on originality of the text of the scientific article, signed by all the authors (see Addition to the Manual of Article Style).

6. The text is printed with 1.5-spacing throughout the text on a standard paper (width of fields: on the left, above and below by 2 cm, on the right — 1 cm) in Times New Roman (Cyr) 14 points. The page of the text should contain no more than 30 lines.

7. The language of the articles is Ukrainian for home authors, Russian and English for foreign authors.

8. The material of the article should be placed in the following order:

- a) UDC index;
- b) initials and the last name of the author (authors);
- c) title of the article;
- d) a complete name of the establishment (establishments) where the work was done, city, country;
- e) statement of a problem in general and its connection with important scientific and practical tasks;
- f) analysis of the modern researches and publications in which the given problem was initiated and which the author is guided by;
- g) pointing out the parts of general problem which were not resolved before;
- h) formulation of the aim of the article (raising a task);

i) statement of the basic material with complete substantiation of obtained scientific results;

j) conclusions from the given research and perspectives of subsequent works in this direction;

k) references;

l) two abstracts — in Russian up to 600–800 printing letters (0.45 page) and in English up to 1200–1800 printing letters (1 page) after the following scheme: UDC index, initials and the last name of author (authors), title of the article, text of the abstract, key words (no more than five).

9. The abstract in English (all abstracts) should shortly reproduce the structure of the article, including introduction, purpose and task, methods, results, conclusions, key words. Initials and the last name of author (authors) are given in transliteration, the title of the article must be translated into English. The key words and other terms of the article should correspond to generally used medical terms cited in dictionaries. One should not use slang and abbreviations which are not in general use.

10. The International System of Units (SI) should be used in the articles.

11. Figures (no more than two) and signatures to them are made separately. On the back side of every figure by a lead pencil one should indicate its number and title of the articles, and if necessary to note a top and bottom.

12. The tables (no more than three) should be placed on separate pages, be numbered and titled. The marginal notes should indicate the place of figures and tables. The information given in tables and figures must not be duplicated.

13. The references must contain the list of works for the last 5 years and only sometimes — more early publications. In the original works they quote no more than 15 sources, in the reviews — about 30. Every work in the literature list should be referred in the manuscript. The literature in the list is ordered according to reference to it in the text of the article, which is given in the square brackets, or after the alphabet. If the works of one and the same author are presented, they take place after the chronological order. The references shouldn't contain works, which have not been published yet.

14. The list is given in duplicate for every copy of the article, which are published separately one from another. The first copy is designed according to DSTU GOST 8302:2015. The other one — fully duplicates the first one, but by the Roman alphabet after the schemes given below.

For articles:

Author A.A., Author B.B., Author C.C. Title of article. Title of Journal 2005; 5 (129): 49-53.

The last names of authors and title of the Journal are given by the Roman alphabet in transliteration, title of the article — in translation into English.

For materials of conferences:

Univ., 2009, 73-75.

The last names of authors are given in transliteration, title of the work — in translation into English. The main thing in descriptions of conferences is the name of conference in the language of original (is given in transliteration if there is not its English name), indicated by italic. Translation of the name into English is given in brackets. Imprint (place of holding a conference, place of publication, year, pages) — in English.

For monographs and other books:

Nenashev M.F. Poslednee pravitel'stvo SSSR [Last government of the USSR]. Moscow, KromPubl., 1993. 221 p.

The last names of authors are given in transliteration, title of the book — in italic in transliteration with translation into English in the square brackets. Place of publication, year of publication, total number of pages — English, name of publishing house — in transliteration.

Please, note: in the references in the Roman alphabet it is necessary to indicate all the authors of the literary source, which you refer to. The name of the source (Journal, conference, book) is always indicated by italic.

The observance of these rules will provide the true representation of quoted sources in the majority of abstract scientometrical databases.

15. Abbreviations of words and word combinations are given according to DSTU 3582–97 and GOST 7.12–93.

For those who have no access to the complete DSTU text, there are examples of bibliographic records registration on the site of the Odessa Medical University. Access by link: <http://odmu.edu.ua/index.php?v=1179>.

16. Information about authors, which contains academic status and degree, the last name, name and patronymic (in a full form), place of work and occupation, address for correspondence, telephones and faxes numbers, e-mail address are added to the article on a separate sheet of paper in the language of original and English.

17. The published materials executed with the use of computer technologies, are added by materials of computer type-setting and graphic on a diskette (CD, DVD).

The text can be done in the following formats: Word for Windows, RTF (Reach Text Format). Graphic material should be submitted in separate files of the XLS, TIFF, WMF or CDR formats. Resolution of stroke originals (the graphics, schemes) of the TIFF formats must be 300–600 dpi B&W, semitone (pictures, etc.) — 200–300 dpi Gray Scale (256 gradations of gray). Width of graphic originals — 5.5, 11.5 and 17.5 cm.

18. Articles are subjected to scientific reviewing, as a result of which the decision about the work is taken whether to publish it or not. The rejected articles are not returned and are not resubmitted.

19. The Journal reserves the right for editorial correcting, which does not distort its contents, or returns an article to the author for correction of revealed errors. The articles sent to the authors for correction, should be sent back no later than in three days after being received by authors.

20. The date of article's coming to the Journal is the day when editorial office receives the final variant of the text.

In order to increase responsibility of a reviewer for the recommended work, under the article one writes his scientific degree, scientific rank, initials and last name, excluding the articles, presented by members of NAS and governmental academies of Ukraine.

21. Proof-reading are not sent to the authors, however if it does not disturb the term of Journal release, a preprint version can be provided, in which only type-setting and factual mistakes can be corrected.

22. The articles that do not conform to these rules, are not submitted.

23. The articles for the publication are sent to the address: Sazhyn D. S., Kostandi street 199, 68, Odessa, 65016.
