

ANNOTATION

Ljubov FEDULOVA, Nataliya LEBEDIEVA

Financial innovations in modernization of economic system

The essence of financial innovations is exposed. Their role in a financial crisis is defined. The influence to the realization of tasks of technological modernization of economy is determined from the positions of correlation between financial innovations and real sector of economy.

Tetyana KIZYMA

Household financial behavior: essence, classification, factors of influence

The essence is substantiated and the most important parts of the households financial behavior are highlighted. The basic problems that restrain the development of active strategies of the households financial behavior in Ukraine are determined and possible solutions in modern terms are indicated.

Lyudmilla ALEXEENKO, Nataliya RADOVA, Yevgen SOKOLOVSKII

Financial innovations in context of guaranteeing of banking system stability

Basic tendencies and contradiction are educed, that characterize the role of financial innovations in the public reproducing and stimulation of innovation activity on macro- and microlevels. The features of development and placing of financial innovations are exposed in the banking system taking into account the change of the world economic state of affairs. It is certain that development and realization of the programs of the newest spectrum of bank foods must be the dominant immitation-innovation constituent of development of the banking system with high innovative.

Oleksandr SHVARTS

Improvement of tools of the asset and liability management of bank in the financial instability

The actual questions of tools of the asset and liability management are reviewed, given system of classification ALM methods in bank. The basic attention is given to improvement of a Gap-management, as main method of management of interest rate risk in the asset and liability management of bank.

Liliya MATLAGA

Capitalization as a factor of increase of reliability and efficiency of banking system of Ukraine

Basic progress of the banking system of Ukraine trends and modern state of necessary volume of capital, which is at disposal of bank institutions, are considered. Own capital of bank institutions structure is investigated and its part in relation to assets. Basic sources of sizes increase of property asset of bank are studied. The role of index of sufficientness of property asset in providing of reliability, firmness and efficiency of the domestic banking system is defined.

Oleh DUBCHAK

Actual problems increase of efficiency of the consumer crediting

The essence theoretical aspects of the consumer crediting are considered, presentation in relation to the role of consumer credits is developed in the increase of standard of living of population. Found out problems of subsequent development of the consumer crediting in Ukraine, the ways increase of efficiency of mechanism of grant of consumer credits bank institutions are offered.

OIha KNEYSLER

Formation of reinsurance market in the context of institutional and evolutionary theory

Main principals of institutional and evolutionary theory are considered. Categorical apparatus of institutional approach to the reinsurance market is determined. From the position of institutionalism the periods of insurance and reinsurance relations transformational reforms are defined. The problems of the reinsurance market are identified.

Tetyana STETSYUK

The role of preventive measure in medical insurance

The main questions of medical insurance is problems of financial subsoil of voluntarily medical insurance is examined. Direction such strategy are leadthroughs of scale prophylactic measures which include realization of the national program of prophylaxis of diseases.

Volodymyr HLIVNYY, Zoryana MATSUK

Forms, methods and tools budget adjustment

The essence of the budget in its internal dimension associated with the processes of balancing revenues and expenditures of individual budgets is considered. The reasons and the need for fiscal adjustment in its internal dimension by uneven economic and financial capacity of individual regions, and financial policies of central and local governments. The classification of the forms and instruments of budget control is defined.

Viktoriya BULAVYNETS

Theoretical basis of local budgets charges of social appointment

Economic essence, role and principles of local budgets charges forming on social aims is found; classification of local budgets charges of social appointment by different criteria is complemented; content and structure of the mechanism of realization the social charges of local budgets are given.

Oksana TULAY, Maryan TRIPAK

Trends of incomes of local budgets

Theoretical and practical aspects of investments and economic growth in Ukraine are considered. The composition of incomes of local budgets is analysed in the context of legal regulation. The prospects for improving the budgeting process in modern conditions are outlined.

Oleksandr SHASHKEVYCH

A new paradigm of public financial control in Ukraine

The problems of forming a new paradigm of control over compliance with budget legislation in Ukraine are exposed, including the introduction of public internal financial control and audit in the public sector. The questions of legislative regulation of budgetary control are investigated in accordance with the new version of the Budget Code of Ukraine.

Tetyana PYSMENNA

Principles of budget control: theoretic interpretation and practice execution

The views of scientists and practitioners to the problem of determining the composition and content of the principles of finance, public financial and budgetary control are investigated. The composition and content of the principles of budgetary control is defined. The principles of legality, objectivity, allocation of control authority, timeliness, control action, effectiveness, and transparency are analysed and the conclusions about full compliance are made.

Oleh DYSHKANT

Theoretical foundations organizational financial control of public procurement

The problems of financial control of public procurement are revealed in the process of harmonization of competition and public procurement in Ukraine. The factors affecting the results of public procurement are analysed. The proposals to improve financial control of public procurement are proved.

Zoryana LOBODINA

Estimation of methods of financial resources management of health care facilities

National practice of financial resources management of health care facilities is characterized and analysed. The basic problems of forming and use of financial resources of medical establishments are founded out. Expedience and the ways of decision of problems of financial resources management are defined.

Mariya FILYO

Institutional conditions of organization counteraction of tax losses

The theoretical and methodological foundations of definitions "institution" and "fiscal institution" are investigated. The main causes of inefficiency of fiscal institutions are considered and causality ineffectiveness of fiscal institutions and the shadow economy are defined.

Valeriy VLASYUK

Prospects of financial leverage property management in the modern business environment

The principles and essence of the property in Ukraine are considered. The problems shareholding are analysed and the features corporate governance are outlined. The indicator of financial performance using financial resources, as a significant lever of influence on the outcome of economic activity is proposed.

Myhaylo KUZHELEV

The corporate conflicts: the mechanism of protection based on meta-theory of interest

The economic nature of corporate conflicts is considered. The types of conflicts that arise between the subjects of corporate relations is analysed. The mechanism to resolve them based on meta-theory of interest is proposed.

Petro BIDYUK, OIha OMEL'CHENKO

The evaluation of the risk of investment in industrial restructuring

The problem of investment in industrial restructuring is considered. A fuzzy model of evaluation of investment projects in terms of pure present value of investments is proposed. A fuzzy method of evaluation of the risk of the project inefficiency is developed. A fuzzy model of evaluation of risks neutralization efficiency is built.

Oleksii MOLDOVAN

The Creation of effective and competitive fiscal space: the experience of Slovakia for Ukraine

Experience of forming of the effective tax system in Slovakia is analysed. The problems of forming of efficiency and competitor fiscal space in this country are outlined. The complex measures is offered in the context of reformation of the tax system on Ukraine.

Volodymyr HORYN

Foreign experience of regulation of the state budget profits in the conditions of economic instability

Foreign experience of forming and regulating of the state budget profits is considered in the conditions of economic instability. Conclusions for introduction directions of separate aspects of fiscal policy of countries with a market economy in domestic practice are formulated.

Khrystyna SNIGUR

Innovative policy of enterprises for providing of their competitiveness

The evolution of scientific and technical progress is considered. The principles of innovative policy are certain. The regulators of mechanism for realization of innovative directions of activity of enterprises are suggested.

Scientific life

Problems of modern macroeconomic theory and policy of the economy growing in the light of global financial instability